

Twelfth Sunday in Ordinary Time

June 19, 2016

Vol. XXXII, No. 25

Daily Wrongs, Daily Crosses

At the end of each day, we could all compile a list of the grievances, the wrongs done us. Over dinner tables across the country a litany of hurts, large and small, is recited alone with the refrain, "I am a good person; I am a Christian; why me?"

Why not?

Jesus promised us many things, but He never promised an easy path. In fact, He told us that each and every day of our life we would be called to pick up a cross and carry it, no matter how bruised our backs, how splintered our hands, how weary our hearts. Jesus offers us His compassion and mercy, His companionship on the suffering road, but He never once offered to remove the burden.

We follow Jesus more closely when we accept those daily wrongs as He would, with patience, tolerance and prayer. It is only then, when we view life's grievances as opportunities to share His cross, that we can conquer our weakness and grow. What cross will you carry today?

Soiree Updates

As has been stated in Mass, people can group together ten (10) to a table by purchasing the tickets all at one time. Committee members will be available after the Masses on the first and third weekends to sell the tickets. The reason for such a seemingly complicated process is that we are trying to protect the consumer. Each ticket is individually numbered, and we will keep a data base of active tickets. At the door, we can recognize the valid tickets which may be lost or forgotten. We ask your patience and understanding of this tedious but worthwhile process.

The Soiree tickets for the August 27 event will be sold after all Masses this weekend by the Committee members.

Purchase Of Soiree Tickets On Website

Soiree tickets for the Saturday, August 27, event may now be purchased online on Sts. Peter and Paul's website www.sppcprla.com There will also be a page on the website where pictures of auction items and other Soiree information can be viewed. Contact a committee member for further details.

Offertory Giving

In today's Gospel, Jesus tells His disciples that if they wish to follow Him they must deny themselves and take up His cross daily. In Jesus' time the cross was not something nice or cool that one could hang on the wall or around one's neck. It was an instrument of torture and execution. His point: We are to lay down our lives and let Him take control. Good stewards hand over their lives to Jesus, no matter the cost. They realize that all they take with them into the next life is their relationship with Christ Jesus. What are we pursuing? A life that tries to bring fulfillment to ourselves or a life that brings us closer to Jesus?

The Birth Of John The Baptist

With heavenly message Gabriel came,
That John should be that herald's name,
And with prophetic utterance told
His actions great and manifold.
John, still unborn, yet gave aright
His witness to the coming Light;
And Christ, the Sun of all the earth,
Fulfilled that witness at his birth.
Of woman-born shall never be
A greater prophet than was he,
Whose mighty deeds exalt his fame
